Considerable interest is being manifested in the priceedings of the present Grand Jury, which began its sittings yesterday, with Charles it. Isham, of 123 East Thirty-seventh street, as foreman.

Foreman Taber, of the March Grand Jury, has written a letter to District Attorney Nicoll, exonerating Police Court Clerk Perley from the charge of warning Gambier "Dink" Davis tant he was to be at rested.

Col. Perley, however, says this is not enough. He wants last week's presentment smended and the exoneration made a part of the records.
